GOLDA

A ticking-clock thriller set during the tense 19 days of the 1973 Yom Kippur War, featuring Helen Mirren in the role of Israeli Prime Minister Golda Meir.

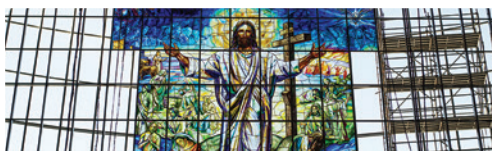

KLIMT & THE KISS

An exquisite film detailing the passion of Gustav Klimt's iconic artwork and scandalous life. *Followed by a Klimt-inspired art class on 11/11 with instructor Brittney Soderman. Materials provided. 12 participant limit.

TO KILL A TIGER

In this cinematic documentary, a farmer in India fights for justice for his 13-year-old daughter, the survivor of sexual assault. This father's love creates a social reckoning that will reverberate for years to come.

HOLY FRIT

A talented yet unknown LA artist bluffs his way into a commission for the largest stained-glass window of its kind. The problem? He doesn't know how to make it and seeks help from an Italian glass maestro to do it.

BEST OF THE FEST ANIMATION SHOWCASE

An animated showcase of award-winning favorites from this year's Children's Film Festival Seattle providing youth audiences with global awareness through the magic of film.

FLORA & SON

Explore the bond between a single mom (Eve Hewson) and rebellious son who journey toward harmony with the help of a beat-up guitar and washed-up LA musician (Joseph Gordon-Levitt).

DECONSTRUCTING THE BEATLES

This fascinating series is as close as you can get to being in the studio with the Fab Four. Go in-depth from Revolver to Sgt. Pepper's to Magical Mystery Tour to Abbey Road.

CARLOS

A rich documentary about a man whose sound casts a spell on fans. A fascinating look into the life of Carlos Santana, packed full of interviews, home videos, and behind-the-scenes moments.

SUBJECT

We're in the golden age of documentaries. This film reveals the unintended consequences, good and bad, featuring protagonists of acclaimed docs: The Staircase, Hoop Dreams, and more.

STRANGE WAY OF LIFE THE HUMAN VOICE

Two short films by Pedro Almodóvar together as one program. Strange Way of Life stars Ethan Hawke. The Human Voice stars Tilda Swinton.
